

Jimena Sánchez Ontañón

Exam 1

Task 1

1. Time period of the Han Empire: 206 BCE – 220 CE

2. Achievements:

- Development of the Silk Road trade
- Invention of paper
- Expansion and consolidation of Chinese territory

3. 汉字 (Hànzi): Chinese characters

4. Most Chinese consider themselves Han because the Han dynasty shaped Chinese language, culture, and identity.

5. Scholarly sources:

- Google Scholar
- JSTOR

6. Three-slide presentation summary:

- Slide 1: Origins and time period
- Slide 2: Main achievements
- Slide 3: Cultural legacy of the Han Empire

Task 2

1. Guidelines for dynamic storytelling:

- Use visuals instead of too much text

- Keep slides simple and clear
- Engage the audience emotionally

2. Role of creativity:

- Makes presentations more memorable, engaging, and visually appealing.
-

Task 3

1. API: A tool that allows software to communicate with another.
 2. API Key: A unique code to access an API securely.
 3. Python: A programming language used for AI and data analysis.
 4. Command Line: Text interface to give instructions to the computer.
 5. Spyder IDE: A development environment for Python.
 6. Google Gemini: Google's AI model for generating text, images, and code.
 7. OpenAI GPT-5: Advanced AI language model for text understanding and generation.
 8. Prompt Engineering: The skill of writing effective prompts to get better AI responses.
-

Task 4 go

(Example chapter: "The Joy Luck Club" – Chapter 1)

1. I chose it because it introduces the mothers and their stories of hope.
2. Main takeaway: The power of hope and cultural connection.
3. Themes: Mother-daughter relationships and cultural identity.
4. AI did a good job summarizing, but it missed some emotional depth.
5. English summary:

The first chapter tells how the mothers formed the Joy Luck Club to find joy despite hardship. They played mahjong and shared dreams for their daughters. It shows their strength and hope after leaving China. The daughters struggle to understand their mothers' past. The story connects generations through culture and love.

