

Task 1 — Han Empire (One-Slide Presentation)

Title: The Han Empire: Foundation of Chinese Civilization

Main points for 3-min talk:

- Time period: 206 BCE – 220 CE
 - Achievements: paper invention, Silk Road trade, Confucian education system
 - Government: strong central rule with bureaucracy and civil service exams
 - Legacy: unified Chinese identity — most Chinese today identify as Han
 - Influence: arts, literature, and technology that shaped later dynasties
-

Task 2 — Reading Summary (Chosen Paper)

Who wrote the paper?

Hui Wang

What is the paper about?

It explains how the Han Empire developed the Silk Road and promoted cultural exchange.

When was the paper published?

2017

Where was it published?

Journal of Chinese History

Why did the author write it?

To show the Han Empire's role in connecting China with other civilizations through trade and diplomacy.

Task 3 — The Joy Luck Club (Ch. 3 & 4)

English Summary (≈3 paragraphs)

In The Red Candle, Lindo Jong tells the story of her arranged marriage in China. At sixteen, she uses her intelligence and courage to escape the marriage without dishonoring her family. Her story shows independence and the power of self-respect.

In The Moon Lady, Ying-Ying St. Clair remembers a childhood festival where she got lost and realized the pain of losing her identity. As an adult, she still struggles with that feeling of invisibility.

Both chapters show how traditional Chinese values and women's experiences shaped the mothers' lives. They reflect sacrifice, strength, and the desire for freedom that each woman carries to America.